MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Sam Walker re Fulton Lewis, 29 January

1. In the course of talking by phone with Sam Walker this morning, he told me that J.R. Smith was in town (New York) and had talked with Sam about the [] case and his (Smith's) meetings with Fulton Lewis. Lewis told Smith that he personally had seen the report of [] private psychiatrist; this report states that [] suffers from a persecution mania. Smith asked Lewis if, in the light of this report, he still intended to use the [] case in his sustained attack on the Free Europe Committee. Lewis replied in the affirmative, and I gathered from Sam that he said something to the effect that he was determined to "get" the Free Europe Committee people at any price because they were such a terrible lot.
